Dear Fellow Traveller,

With Galway giving us all many thrills in Gaelic football and hurling, local man doing very well in golf and the Galway Races about to happen We are having a good summer of sport. Sport is good for us both for participants and spectators .

At the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin two Japanese pole vaulters were tied for second place and the silver medal when it became too dark to have a run off. On the winners podium they were disappointed that one was asked to accept the silver medal and the other the bronze even though they had tied. They were good friends and when they returned home to Japan they cut the two medals in half. They joined the half silver one to a half of the bronze. Each of them had what they agreed to call “The medal of eternal friendship”.

Sport is about winning and loosing but it is also about friendship. Long after the shine has gone from the medals there is a smile on the faces of the friends that are made through sport if undertaken in the right spirit. The joy of sport or the joy of living life to the full gives us the satisfaction of knowing we did our best. There is a certain contentment in knowing that we made good use of the gifts God gave is. The old motto was a good one: Who you are is God’s gift to you; What you become is your gift to God. Whatever your level of skill or even if you are only a “hurler on the ditch” or a spectator on the Telly—enjoy the games and the effort.

Have a good week and enjoy the fine weather.
